Adjournment.

The General Assembly has resolved to adjourn on the 10th instant to meet again on the 20th of April. A committee of two on the part of the Senate and four on the part of the House of Representatives, has been appointed, who will remain in session during the recess for the purpose of preparing and collating the business ready for the action of the two Houses when they again assemble. Messrs. Eddy and Hester have been appointed on the part of the Senate, and Messrs. Gibson, English, Bryant and Lindsay of Howard, on the part of the House. No per diem pay will be allowed the members during this recess, except to the members of the committee. During this recess, the committee will prepare all the unfinished business, and when the General Assembly again convenes, it will not require more than four weeks to pass on all the bills reported, and make the revision entirely complete, to correspond with the requisitions of the new Constitution.

Scott and the Compromise.

The Louisville Courier has at last obtained satisfactory evidence that Gen. Scott is in favor of the compromise. It appears a Mr. Paschall of St. Louis, but now in Washington, writes as follows.

"I take this occasion to say that all his doubts on this matter have been removed. GEN. SCOTT WAS THE FRIEND OF THE COMPROMISE MEASURES FROM THE START—ADVOCATED THEM AND ENFORCED THEM WHEREVER AN OPPORTUNITY AFFORDED. HERE AND ELSEWHERE—AND CONTRIBUTED NOT A LITTLE TO SECURE THEIR ADOPTION. HIS VIEWS WITH REFERENCE TO THEM ARE STILL UNCHANGED—AND IF ELECTED TO THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT, HE WILL ABIDE BY AND EXECUTE THEM."

This is the Whig mode of obtaining the opinions of a candidate for the Presidency. The Democratic method is to ask the man and he speaks out. The Whig method has this advantage; the friends of Scott in the North can deny that Paschall was ever authorized by Gen. Scott to make such an assertion; whilst his friends at the South will declare that it is perfectly satisfactory. What deception. Gen. Scott can speak and write, and there should be no second handed evidence in the case. A Democratic candidate for the Presidency occupying that position could not get one vote.

☞ The Lonisana Courier, the oldest Democratic newspaper in New Orleans, has been purchased by Hon. Emile La Sere, late a member of Congress from New Orleans. It is published in English and French. Mr. La Sere is a fine writer and a sound and consistent Republican. As a member of Congress, with his colleagues in the House, he voted against the compromise measure, but he never was either a disunionist or a secessionist. On the subject of the Presidential Election he says:

"In view of the Presidential election, we deem it right to say that, whatever personal preferences we may entertain, we arrogate no right to dictate to the democratic party; but while we refrain from pressing the claims of any of the distinguished gentlemen spoken of in connection with the nomination, as impolitic, we shall carefully avoid anything like disparagement of the pretension of each and all of them, for reasons obvious to every democrat. Whoever shall be selected by the united sentiment of the party to bear its standard, shall receive our cordial and enthusiastic support—a pledge which we have no hesitation in giving beforehand, satisfied, as we are, that the convention at Baltimore will reaffirm the time honored principles of democracy, as imbodied in the resolutions of 1844 and 1848.

The series of measures known as the Compromise is now the law of the land, and whatever differences of opinion heretofore existed among the members of the democratic party should be forgotten, and any attempt to revive them will be discountenanced by us.

☞ The election of Col. Weller, as a Senator in Congress from California, is a great political triumph. It is not only a triumph of the Democracy in California, but of the whole Union. Col. Weller's influence and talents will be felt in the national councils. He was appointed by President Polk commissioner to run the Mexican boundary line, but was shortly afterwards removed by President Taylor. Thus have the people of California and Oregon rebuked the administration by the election of Weller and Lane to Congress; one as a Senator, the other as a Delegate; and we only regret that the butcher Ewing, who made them the peculiar objects of his vengeance, as Secretary of the Interior and as Senator, is not now in the Senate in the place of Wade, when they might meet the slanderer face to face, and mete, out to him that castigation which his dastardly conduct merits.

Fire in the Rear.

The Southern Compromise Whig presses at the South whilst Gen. Scott is looking to the North for support, is pouring a terrible fire into his rear. His silence in relation to the adjustment measures will him the entire South unless he speaks out, and that immediately. It has been said that he would soon write a letter defining his position; but the moment he does this, if he takes the compromise ground strong enough to secure the South, he looses the North. Seward who was originally a Webster man is now for Scott, because he is not committed on these measures; but the moment he commits himself, Seward declares that he will fall back on his original preferance. In this state of "betweenary" he is compelled to stand. He can neither retreat or advance without loosing the battle, and the present fire, unless checked will soon riddle his hull.

☞ The Louisville Courier places at the head of its editorial column the names of Winfield Scott for President, and James C. Jones for Vice President; and thereupon Mr. Prentice of the Journal, remarks.

"We perceive that a city paper has at its editorial head the names of Gen. Scott and Gov. Jones for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

"There may be a state of case in which it will be both the duty and the pleasure of the Whigs of Kentucky to support Gen. Scott for the Presidency, but there is not a decently informed man here who does not know, that Gen. Scott, unless he were to pledge himself before the nation to support the Compromise, could not get the votes of even a tenth part of the Whigs of this State. The city paper, which we alluded to, unfurls the Scott flag whilst Scott occupies a position before the public, in which nearly or quite all of the Whigs of Kentucky would decline to support him.

If the Louisville Journal or any other Whig paper of political standing and influence were to pursue such a course, the astonishment and indignation of the Whig party would be aroused, but there are papers whose opinions are regarded with such utter indifference that they can say or do just what they please without provoking rebuke or even attracting attention.

Caved in.

The Whig friends of Mr. Fillmore and the compromise measures have caved in. Where is Sol. Meredith and Sam. Parker, James Rariden and M. L. Bundy, E. W. McGaughey and Thomas Dowling, Milton Gregg and Sam. Judah? Echo answers where! They are neither delegates to the National Convention nor Electors. R. W. Thompson, who was absent, was made an Elector. We should like to hear Richard making speeches against the compromise measures. Hear him explain away his letter to Senators Bright and Whitcomb, but he is a man of genius, and can easily do it. Dick will say, times have changed, and I have changed with them; all right.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Madisonian, who is the Editor, speaking of the debut of Mr. Hendricks, our Representative, says: "Mr. Hendricks, though quite a young man, is a pleasant speaker, and well versed in legal questions. He made a favorable impression upon the House. I predict for him an unbounded popularity and influence with his fellow-members, and a career of credit to himself and usefulness to his constituents His only fault is his modesty which is rather a scarce article with politicians. He will get over it after a little more experience."

☞ The Lonisville Times is the title of a new Daily and Weekly Journal, just commenced at Louisville, Kentucky, by Messrs. Stapp, O'Harra and Howard. It is neatly printed, and edited with spirit and ability. In politics the Times is Democratic. We wish the Editors and Proprietors great success.

☞ We learn from one of the Directors of the Madison and Indianapolis Railroad Company, that the Board of Directors of that road decided on yesterday, at a special meeting, to accept the proposition of the State to sell its interest, on the terms provided for in the bill which passed a few days since.

☞ We are requested by Gov. Wright to say, that the double issue of treasury notes, amounting to some seven thousand dollars, already redeemed by the State, were not issued under the administration of Douglass Maguire, as Auditor of State, but were put into circulation under the administration of his predecessors.

☞ Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, in a letter published a few days ago in the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel, announces that he "is utterly opposed to sending delegates to the Baltimore Convention from the Constitutional Union party of Georgia."—Louisville Cour.

But he does not oppose sending delegates to the Whig Convention. What hypocrisy.

☞ The Land Office at Fort Wayne has been discontinued and the vacant lands in that district will hereafter be entered at Indianapolis.

The Penitentiary Fire.

The late fire at the State Prison proved most disastrous to Mr. Patterson the lessee. His loss, we learn, is estimated at thirty thousand dollars, and that of the State at about half that sum. It does not appear that the fire was caused by any carelessness on the part of the case lessee or his agents. On the contrary, we are informed that Mr. P. employs trustworthy and efficient watchmen in every part of the building. The combustible nature of the materials of the portion of the building destroyed, the fact that the cisterns were in the immediate vicinity of the place where the fire raged the fiercest, and that the number of fire engines in Jeffersonville was altogether inadequate to the emergency, renders the a peculiarly hard one for Mr. Patterson, who, in addition to this, has suffered heavy losses from cholera and other sickness among the convicts. By the destruction of his machinery, tools, implements, &c., the lessee will necessarily lose the labor of a large number of his most productive hands till their place can be supplied and suitable buildings for shops erected.

We understand the citizens of Jeffersonville have, with great unanimity, determined to petition the Legislature to relieve Mr. Patterson from a portion of the heavy loss which he has thus sustained, by remitting the rent for a given period or until he can recover from the embarrassments into which he has been thrown by this calamity. We do not presume that any citizen could wish the State to stand by and see her agent bankrupted, when the fault to a great extent, lies at the door of the State herself in not providing fire proof buildings. We think, therefore, in view of all the circumstances that our citizens would be but doing an act of justice to an unfortunate agent of the State—would be but doing as they would wish to be done by under similar circumstances—by joining their fellow citizens of Jeffersonville in petitioning to the Legislature to grant Mr. Patterson such relief as, after a careful investigation of the circumstances of the fire and the amount of loss sustained, may be deemed proper and just.

We would here remark, too, that it would be economy for the State, in rebuilding that portion of the prison destroyed, to render it fire proof.—New Albany Ledger.

☞ What things are tending to in the whig ranks is every day becoming more evident. A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says of a whig national convention—

"It is plain enough already that a ripened public sentiment will only look to that convention to enunciate a forgone conclusion. The aspect of affairs in the north, south, east and west, and the drift and tone of things here, all point with unerring certainty to this result. Gen. Scott will walk over the course."

Arm in arm with Seward—the latter might have added. How is Scott on the fugitive slave law?—that's the question.

☞ Winchell had an overflowing house again last night.

Decisions of the Supreme Court of Indiana.

NOVEMBER TERM, 1851.

REPORTED FOR THE STATE SENTINEL BY L. BOLLMAN.

Michigan Central Railroad Company vs. Northern Indiana Railroad Company. On Appeal.

The President Judge of the Laporte Circuit Court, at his chambers, in vacation, granted an interlocutory decree, on the 28th day of August, 1851. On the 30th of August an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. A motion was made to dismiss this appeal, on the ground that the statute does not authorize such an appeal. The statute declares that appeals to the Supreme Court shall be allowed to be taken from any interlocutory order or decree of any circuit or probate court in this State, &c.; and requires that the appeal shall be taken at the time when such order or decree is made.

Judge SMITH held,

1. That the order in this case is an interlocutory decree of the circuit court, although it was made by a single judge, in vacation, for the bill paying such order must be addressed to the court; it becomes a part of its record; is enforced by its authority; that such orders were granted in the English courts, both in equity and common law, by a single judge, in vacation, and seem to have been acquiesced in, and to have the same effect as if made by the court in term. Eden on Inj., p. 337; 4 Burr. 2570; 1 Taunt., 44; 4 Burr, 2570; 5 B. and Ald., 217; 7 Eng. C. L. R., 73.

2. That although the statute requires the appeal to be taken at the time the injunction is granted, yet courts have always construed such a phrase to mean such reasonable time as may be necessary to do the act required.

3. That the statute in authorizing appeals from any order or decree, embraced in its provisions those made in vacation, as well as in term, for the remedy granted by the appeal being, that no injury might be sustained by an improvident or an oppressive act of an inferior court, it would be unreasonable to suppose that the Legislature believed there was no danger of error or oppression from a single judge, or the associate judges, when acting separately in vacation.

4. That the words "the court" and "the judge," or "judges," are frequently used in our statutes as synonymous.

5. That the insufficiency of the appeal bond, and its not being filed in time, are matters on which the appellees may be heard on a motion to dismiss the appeal, as the appeal was granted without notice to them.

Motion overruled.

Harper vs. Delp. Appeal from the Parke Circuit Court.

Harper brought an action for slander against Delp. The declaration contained three counts, each of which was specially demurred to, and the demurrers sustained.

The plaintiff lived in the neighborhood of the defendant, was a young man lately married, and had not by his wife any children, and was the only young married man in that neighborhood. Andrew Scott had a blacksmith shop between the defendant's house and the house of Sarah Clove, and a person going from the house of the latter, by way of the shop, to the house of Delp, would pass by the plaintiff's house, and leave Martin Harpers's farm on the right, Martin being the father of the plaintiff.

The first count detailed these facts, and contained averments to show that the slanderous words where spoken of and concering the plaintiff, at, &c., to &c. The words spoken by the defendant are stated as follows:

"That his son Rial (meaning Erial Delp, the defendant's son) on the week before had staid at Sarah Clove's, (meaning the Sarah before mentioned.) and on the way home, (meaning on the way from the house of the said Sarah Clove to the house of the defendant.) he (meaning said Erial) saw a young man ravishing a cow. He (meaning said Erial) went by Scott's shop, and left Martin Harper's farm on the right, (meaning thereby that said Erial, in going from said Sarah's, as aforesaid, to the defendant's house, had gone by said blacksmith shop of said Scott, and had left the residence of said Martin Harper, the plaintiff's father, on his said Erial's, right;) and that between the shop and John Summer's the act took place, (meaning thereby that the crime of bestiality and buggery with a cow had been committed between said blacksmith shop and the residence of said John Summers;) that this was a young married man, and his wife had no children, and did not like for any; and that it was so early in the morning that a person could not have got far from home." Thereby meaning, &c., and that the persons to whom the words were spoken and published did understand, &c.

The second count was similar to the first, and the third one contained sets of words as follows:

1st. "He (meaning the plaintiff) was seen a foul of a cow."

2nd. "Rial (meaning, &c.) saw a young man (meaning the plaintiff) ravishing a cow.

3rd. "Rial (meaning, &c.) saw him (meaning the plaintiff) ravishing a cow." "William Harper (the plaintiff meaning) was caught by my son Rial in the act of ravishing a cow."

Judge BLACKFORD held,

1st That where there is any ambiguity in the words laid, in regard to the person slandered, there must be an introductory averment showing that the plaintiff was the person aimed at. Butstrode's Rep. 225; Cro. Charles, 420; Comyn's Rep. 267; that the colloquium in this case is sufficient, for it contains an averment that the words were spoken of the plaintiff, and such statement of facts as to show that the words were spoken of him.

2nd. That the word "ravishing" ordinarily means the having sexual or carnal knowledge, that it is defined to mean "to violate by force," "to debauch," "to defile," "compelling to submit to carnal intercourse," &c.

3rd. That the first class or sets of words in the third count are not actionable in themselves, for the usual signification of the word "foul" is unclean, filthy, dirty, and the phrase "to fall foul" is a common one, meaning "to run against;" that if the word had been used, on this occasion, in a sense to impute the crime of bestiality, and was so understood by the hearers, there should have been a special averment to that effect. 7, Bingh. 119; 11 Munson and Welsby, 296; 16 lb. 159, 7 Blackf. 117.

4th. That the second set of words are objectionable, because they do not show with sufficient certainty that the plaintiff was the person referred to by the defendant. That the words "a young man" and "a man" do not point to the plaintiff more than to any other. But whether this uncertainty might have been remedied by an averment, is not decided.

5th. That the word "him" in the third set of words, sufficiently demonstrates the person, without a special inducement to support the innuendoes. Croke's Eliz. 861; and that no formal colloquium even was necessary to support the set of words in which the plaintiff's name is mentioned. 1 Starkie on Slander 333, 384.

Judgment reversed.

Brewer vs. Thorp. Error to the Randolph Circuit Court.

This was a bill in Chancery to obtain a specific performance. It is alledged in the bill that the defendant had sold to his son a tract of land, for which he was to execute a deed, when requested on or before the 25th day of December, 1846; that his said son had paid for said land, exceept the sum of fifty dollars and three months labor, and afterwards, on the 10th day of December, 1846, he had assigned the title bond to the complainant. It is also alleged that the said son had performed one and a half months of his labor, but had been hindred from performing the ballance; that the complainant had tendered $71 to the defendant and demanded a deed, which he refused to excute.

Judge SMITH held.

That this bill was rightly dismissed upon the complainant refusing to amend it, because it shows, that the vendee had not performed a certain amount of labor, he was to perform, and does not alledge that the performance of it was prevented by the vendor.

Decree affirmed.

Heaston vs. Colgrove. Error to the Randolph Circuit Court.

By an article of agreement Heaston engaged to furnish one double carding machine at, &c., and Colgrove agreed to furnish a similar one then in his possession, both of which were to be placed in a certain building and run upon certain terms. Neither performed his agreement. Colgrove sued Heaston and obtained a judgement.

Judge PERKINS held,

1. That this judgement must be reversed, because Colgrove had failed to comply on his own part with the agreement sued on.

2. That in this suit, Heaston had a right, on pleading or giving notice of such defence, to show what damage he had sustained by Colgrove's breach of the agreement. Epperly vs. Baily, at this term.

3. That instructions, although erroneous, if not excepted to when given, cannot be objected to in this court, because the objection to them is waived.

Judgement reversed.

Burgess vs. Clark. Appeal from the Allen Circuit Court.

This suit was commenced by a writ of domestic attachment, in the Allen Circuit Court. The defence was that for eighteen months previously, and from thence hitherto, the defendant was an inhabitant and resident of the territory of Wisconsin.

Judge BLACKFORD held,

1. That the declaration of the defendant, when he went away, "that he was going to some of the Western Territories and might or might not return," was admissable evidence, as it was a part of the res gesta.

2. That the post marks on letters, of the genuineness of which there was no controversy, were admissable without proof.

Judgment affirmed.

De Puy vs. Everett. Error to the Wabash Circuit Court.

This was an action in assumpsit, and was continued at the first term, upon the motion and affidavit of the defendant. At the next succeeding term, the defendant again moved a continuance of the cause upon affidavit. This affidavit referred to the material facts stated in the first affidavit without setting them out in the last affidavit, and the first one was not made a part of the record in this case. The court below refused to grant a continuance, which refusal is the error assigned.

Judge BLACKFORD held,

That the first affidavit not being a part of the record, the second one does not show the facts expected to be proved by the absent witness.

Judgment affirmed.

James Timmons and others vs. Wingate Timmons Admr.

The administrator made application for an order to sell certain real estate of the intestate. The Court granted the order. The error assigned is that a final decree was taken against one of the defendants, an infant, without the appointment of a guardian ad litem for her. To this assignment the administrator pleaded that at the time of the rendition of the decree the said defendant was of full age. The plea was demurred to.

Judge BLACKFORD held,

That this demurrer must be sustained, for if the error appeared upon the transcript, it is correctly taken, and if not the proper plea was in nothing is there error; and as this case does not refer to a will, the decision of the Court must be governed by what appears on the transcript. R. S. p. 634, sect. 54.

Demurrer sustained.

Forney vs. Goodhue. Error to the Wabash Circuit Court.

In this case it was held that as the testimony given on the trial was not very strong, and the newly discovered evidence which is set out in the affidavit, upon an application for a new trial, was such as to show a new trial ought to be granted, the Court below erred in refusing it.

Judgment reversed.

Byrket and others vs. The State on relation of Silvers. Error to the Henry Circuit Court.

This was an action founded on the official bond of a justice. In a former suit between the same parties the relator recovered a judgment for various sums collected by the Justice, and not paid over, but in taking the judgment two of the sums, by mistake, were omitted, for which this suit is now brought. This judgment was pleaded against that suit.

Judge BLACKFORD held,

That under the circumstances, this suit could not be defeated by the former recovery, 8 Blackf. 440; 5 T. R. 607; 2 Johns. 227; 3 B. & Cres. 235.

Symons vs. Smith. Appeal from the Grant Circuit Court.

The only question in this case was whether a part of the consideration of a certain note, was for the part payment of a certain tradt of land, for the conveyance of which a decree was asked. It was held that the evidence set out did not sufficiently prove it against the testimony of the complainant.

Decree affirmed.

The Lawrenceburgh R. Road Co. vs. Smith. Error to the Dearborn Circuit Court.

This was a motion to dismiss the writ of error, because the charter of that Company says that, in cases like this, the judgment of the Circuit Court shall be final. Local Laws, 1847, p. 8.

It was held that the language of that act was not sufficiently explicit to authorize this Court in saying that such writ will not lie in this case.

Laughlin and others vs. The Trustees, &c., of Lamasco city. Appeal from the Vanderburgh Circuit Court.

Held, That the statute authorizing an appeal from any order granting an injunction, applies in this case, R. S. pp. 636, 637. See Michigan Central R. R. Co. vs. Northern Indiana R. R. Co. at this term.

The resolution was then laid on the table.

Petitions Presented.

By Messrs. Holloway, Saffer and McCarty, on the subject of temperance. Laid on the table.

Reports from Committees.

By Mr. Turman, from the committee on the State Library, a bill to purchase for a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, a file of the Western Sun, consisting of thirty-eight bound volumes, from 1808 to 1846, published at Vincennes by Elihu Stout.

Bills, &c., Introduced.

By Mr. Niblack, to sell saline lands in Dubois county.

Bills, &c., read the third time.

Joint resolution in relation to surgeons who served in the War with Mexico. (Asking Congress to place them on the same footing, in regard to bounty lands and extra pay, as the regular surgeons.) Passed—ayes 31, noes 4.

Joint resolution to suspend the operation of the second section of the law passed at the present session, to provide a remedy for the illegal reduction of the valuation of lands in several counties in this State.

Mr. Defrees moved to commit the joint resolution to a select committee with instructions. Carried.

Bills on the second reading were taken up and disposed of.

A message was received from the House, announcing that the House had concurred in the resolution of the Senate for the temporary adjournment of the Legislature with an amendment to adjourn on Wednesday, 10th inst., to meet again on Tuesday, April 20.

The amendments, after a call of the Senate, were concurred in, apparently unanimously, without a call of the ayes and noes.

Other messages of the House were taken up and disposed of.

Mr. Reid introduced a joint resolution in relation to a correspondence between the Governors of this State and of the State of Ohio, in relation to the assessment of personal property.

Mr. Defrees from a select committee, returned the joint resolution to suspend the second section of the law passed at the present session to provide a remedy for the illegal reduction of the valuation of the lands in several counties of this State with an amendment. Amendment concurred in, and joint resolution passed. Ayes 31, noes 8.

Mr. Holloway introduced a joint resolution in relation to settlements with the State Printer.

Senate adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Senate met.

On motion of Mr. Cravens, the Senate proceeded, by ballot, to the election of two of its members, as the committee on the part of the Senate to revise the laws during the recess of the Legislature.

On the first ballot, Mr. Eddy received 23 votes, and Mr. Hester 20 votes, and were declared duly elected

Mr. Eddy, from the committee on corporations, returned the bill to provide for the construction of plank, macadamized and gravel roads, with an amendment recommending its passage. Amendment concurred in and bill engrossed.

Mr. McCarty, from the committee on corporations, returned the bill authorizing cities and towns to borrow money for municipal and other improvements, recommending its passage. Laid on the table for the present.

The President then, in accordance with parliamentary usage, vacated the chair after a short and eloquent address to the Senate.

A message from the House announcing the passage of the State revenue bill was taken up.

The bill was read the first time, the rules suspended, and the bill read the second time, and the Senate resolved itself into committee of the whole on the bill.

The first section being read, Mr. Emerson moved to strike out 20 cents as the amount to be levied on each one hundred dollars' worth of property, and insert 25 cents.

The motion was advocated by Messrs. Emerson, Cravens and McCarty, and opposed by Messrs. Eddy and Reid.

Mr. McCarty contended that it was the duty of the Legislature, the performance of which the people demanded of them, to fix the taxes at the highest reasonable sum in order to raise a fund as soon as possible to pay off the principal of the State debt, as well as the interest.

Mr. Reid, on the contrary, contended that the taxes now were too high, and that the people were complaining of the present rates and demanded a reduction of the same. The present bill reduced from 30 to 20 cents, being one third of the amount, yet the following estimate shows a surplus in the Treasury of $130,000 at the close of the current year.

Value of real and personal property in State, $210,000,000; at 20 cts. on $100,		$420,000
Value of poll tax,		75,761
Deficiency,		25,000
		$520,761
Ordinary expenses,	$ 75,000
State interest,	273,580
Public charities,	50,000
		398,580
		$132,181

The amendment was not adopted.

The committee rose reported progress and were discharged.

The bill was then ordered to a third reading on to-morrow.

Mr. Brugh, from the committee on public buildings, returned bill of the House authorizing the State Librarian to contract for re-covering the State House, and repairing it, with an amendment, providing that the roof shall be of patent water-proof composition roofing instead of tin. Amendment concurred in and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Defrees offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our thanks be tendered to Lieutenant Governor James H. Lane, for the dignified, able, and impartial discharge of the duties of presiding officer of this Senate.

Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, March 5, 1852.

The House met.

Petitions Presented.

By Mr. Nelson, the following petition, signed by all the Journeymen Printers of Indianapolis:

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Indiana:

The undersigned, Journeymen Printers of Indianapolis, most respectfully pray your honorable body not to reduce the price of the public printing below the rates now paid, viz: 45 cents per thousand ems for composition, and 45 cents per token for presswork, as they are convinced that it would have the effect to induce their employers to attempt to reduce their wages to a corresponding standard. The prices now paid to Journeymen are at the lowest living rates.

The effect would also be most severely felt by the country press. The prices paid by the State for printing have always been the standard for the country offices, and a reduction in accordance with the bill now under consideration, would be ruinous to them.

Believing that your Honorable body are disposed to protect labor, they trust a deaf ear will not be turned to this, their humble, but earnest request.

[Signed by thirty-two Journeymen Printers.]

Referred to committee on printing.

By Mr. Williams, a temperance petition from citizens of Knox county. Referred to the committee on that subject.

By Mr. Morris, a temperance petition from citizens of Henry county. Referred to the committee on that subject.

Reports from Committees.

By Mr. Gibson, from the judiciary committee, reporting back House bill to allow trustees to receive donations for benevolent and religious purposes, &c., with an amendment; which was concurred in, and the bill passed—ayes 79, noes 1.

By Mr. Lewis, from the committee on benevolent and scientific institutions, to whom was referred a bill to regulate and limit the expenses of the State benevolent institutions, reported the same back, and recommended its indefinite postponement.

Mr. Buskirk moved to lay the bill and report on the table. Carried.

Mr. Owen moved to reconsider the vote by which the House indefinitely postponed Senate joint resolution for an adjournment of the Legislature to a day certain. Carried—ayes 52, noes 26.

The question then recurred on the motion to reciprocate the resolution of the Senate.

Mr. Mudget moved to amend the Senate resolution, by striking out all after the resolving clause, and inserting the following:

Resolved, The Senate concurring, that the General Assembly adjourn on Wednesday, the 10th of March, to meet again on Tuesday, the 20th of April; and that a committee of two on the part of Senate and four on the part of the House be appointed to revise the laws, and report to the Legislature when it re-assemble in April: Provided, That no per diem shall be allowed to members other than said committee: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House be the Clerks of said committee, and that no other officer of either House shall receive per diem during said recess: Provided also, That the papers of members, except of said committee, shall not be continued during the recess.

Mr. Doughty moved to strike out the Clerk's allowed.

Mr. Mudget accepted the amendment, and the amendment was agreed to.

The resolution, as amended, was then passed.

AYES—Messrs. Barker, Beach, Beane, Bulla, Buskirk, Carpenter, Chowning, Crawford, Dice, Donaldson, Doughty, Eccles, Geddes, Goudy, Hanna, Hart, Hays of White, Helmer, Henry, Huey, Kent, King, Laverty Leviston Lewis, Lindsey of Fayette, Litchfield, Manson, Marrs, McAllister, McDowell, Miller, Mudget, Nelson, Owen, Porter, Smith of Marion, Smith of Spencer, Stover, Stuart, Sumner, Taggart, Wells, and Wilson—44.

NOES—Messrs. Beeson, Behm, Cockrum, Cromwell, Davis of Franklin, Dobson, Donham, Douthit, English, Foster, Gibson, Gunn, Hicks, Humphreys, Hunt, Lawrence, Lindsay of Howard, Major, Mayfield, McDonald, Morris, Ray, Reynolds, Schoonover, Scudder, Shanklin, Stanfield, Staton, Stevens, Struble, Sweet, Torbet, Walker, Watson, Williams, and Mr. Speaker—36.

Bills Introduced.

By Mr. Gibson, a bill for the regulation of the General Assembly enforcing the attendance of the members thereof, and declaring vacant the seats of those members who vacate them without leave.

[The bill provides: 1st. That no member shall absent himself except in case of sickness. 2d. Before leave is granted, the member asking it is to make application in writing, and such request is to be journalized. 3d. Any member who absents himself for two days at one time, his seat is to be declared vacant, and the Governor is to notify the county which such member represents, and another member is to be elected to fill the vacancy. 4th. The roll is to be called each morning, to ascertain the absentees; and all absentees who do not report themselves to the presiding officer during the day, their names are to be entered on the journal as absent without leave.]

By Mr. King, a bill relative to electric telegraph companies—their duties and responsibilities.

By Mr. Stevens, a bill to exempt the stock of railroads, turnpike, and plankroad, or canals from taxation, until after the same pays a dividend.

The House resolved itself into committee of the whole, Mr. Mudget in the chair, and took up the revenue bill; and after a few minutes,

Mr. Stanfield moved that the committee rise and report the bill to the House, with a recommendation that it pass; which was agreed to.

Mr. Buskirk moved that the rules be suspended, and the bill read a third time now. Carried.

Mr. Manson moved to re-commit the bill, with instructions to strike out all in relation to the poll tax.

Mr. Gibson demanded the previous question; which was seconded; and the bill passed—ayes 65, noes 12.

The House adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House met.

Mr. Manson asked leave and introduced a resolution, that the House will go into the selection on Monday next, of four members to revise the laws during the recess of the Legislature.

Mr. Smith of S., moved to amend so as to go into the election this day.

Mr. English moved to amend so as to give the appointment of this committee to the speaker; carried.

The resolution as amended was then concurred in.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Gibson, Bryant, English and Lindsay of H., said committee.

The special order of the afternoon was taken up, being the temperance bill.

After numerous attempts to amend, all of which failed, the bill was engrossed.

The consideration of the bill to provide the assessment &c., of real property, was postponed until the 22d day of April.

Several bills were read the second time and appropriately disposed of.

Senate bill for reorganizing the board of trustees of the Indiana University, &c. Passed—ayes 62, noes 14.

Mr. Beeson asked leave and introduced a bill fixing the per diem pay of members of the General Assembly. Read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Gibson,

House adjourned.

NOTE.—On Wednesday, when the bill to organize Courts of Common Pleas was before the House, Mr. Stover moved to recommit it with instructions to so change the bill as to elect one Judge in each county, and he do all the business both ministerial and judicial, &c.; taxing a docket fee sufficient to pay the salary of the Judge.

Mr. Stover said this proposition if adopted would avoid the strong objections heretofore urged against the old surrogate court of the State of New York, and particularly the objection of the gentleman from Dearborn, (Mr. Holman,) "that it was a thieving court," and also the objection to our present system, by cutting off the "opportunity now afforded to the clerks to gouge estates, by delaying the settlements, &c."

He wished to say that as to these objections in reference to his county, the Judge was an honest prudent and very judicious man, of good integrity against whom the people made no complaint; their objections are to the system. And if the argument used against the surrogate system, that "its officers grow wealthy under its operations" was well founded, it applied with equal force against our present system, so far as respects the clerks.

DAILY STATE SENTINEL.

THE GREAT KENTUCKY REMEDY.

DR. JOHN BULL'S SARSAPARILLA!!

Will Wonders never Cease?

IF the following cures, performed alone by the use of BULL'S SARSAPARILLA, are not wonders, then we acknowledge that we do not know the meaning of the word. Read, and be convinced that facts are stranger than fiction:—

LINE P. O., Fulton Co., Ky., Oct. 1, 1851.

Dr. John Bull: Dear Sir—The two dozen of your Sarsaparilla, ordered in September, came to hand, and, in acknowledging the receipt of the same, I feel I would be doing you injustice to withhold the following, among the many of the instances that have come under my observation, during the last two years, of the great curative properties of your Sarsaparilla:—

Mrs. Jeannette Martin, a highly respectable lady of my neighborhood, aged sixty-five years, had been long afflicted with a cancerous ulcer, which finally reduced her to so helpless a condition, that she could not leave her bed. She tried the best medical advice in our county, without relief, and had given up all hopes of a cure. At this stage of her case, I persuaded her son to take a bottle of your Sarsaparilla. He did so, and in a short time returned, and purchased another bottle, stating the first had had a decidedly good effect. She continued to use it until, after the use of five or six bottles, I had the pleasure of seeing the old lady herself at church. She assured me that she had almost entirely recovered her health, and from her I received the account of her disease, and in about the same words I give it to yo This is but one of a number of cures under my observation—of very remarkable ones—performed by the use of your Sarsaparilla, in my neighborhood. The demand for it has steadily increased since its introduction here. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WM. R. DICKINSON, P. M.

BOYLE COUNTY, Ky., Oct. 6, 1851.

Dr. John Bull: Dear Sir—I have seen the most marvellous cure of one of my patients, by your valuable medicine—an old lady, who had been afflicted from her childhood with scrofula, and various diseases of the brain. She was sixty years old. It had run into something like leprosy, and she was the most frightful creature my eyes ever beheld. I called in Dr. McFadden, a very fine physician, to consult with me in relation to her. We came to the conclusion that it was out of our power to relieve her; but, on going to my office, I accidentally picked up one of your Journals, when, on seeing the wonderful cures your Sarsaparilla had effected, I resolved to try the experiment in this case. I took her two bottles of it, after taking which I perceived a great change. I took her some more. She is now taking the sixth bottle, and I consider her entirely cured. I take great pleasure in recommending your Sarsaparilla to the afflicted public.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN M. ROSS, M. D.

I, Thomas A. Ringo, of Graves Co., Ky., for the benefit of mankind generally, do hereby certify, that on or about the 16th day of October, 1847, I was attacked with a very severe pain in the lower part of the abdomen, which lasted but a few minutes, and moved into the left hip, and continued exceedingly painful for about five days, during which time I had a very light fever. At the end of that time the fever ceased, and the pain abated for a day or two, after which it again returned, and was much worse than before. During all this time I was under medical treatment. From a short time after I was taken, I was unable to walk or sit up; the hip in which the pain was so bad commenced rising, until some time in January, when it burst, and a number of pieces of bone came out—as many as twenty, at least. Some of the pieces were three-fourths of an inch long. Some time after this, a hard knot appeared on my right hip, also one on my right wrist, and one on my leg, below my knee. I continued to get weak and worse, and pain made its appearance in my right shoulder, and would move in my breast and stomach. At this time all persons gave me up to die. A physician then told me that, as a last remedy, I had better use MR. BULL'S FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. After the use of the second bottle, the knot on my wrist commenced getting soft. I opened it, and a day or two after, a piece of bone came out. My wrist soon got well, and I continued to gain strength. After I used the third bottle, I could get no more for some four weeks, after which time I succeeded in getting three more bottles. After using the three last bottles, the knot on my hip became soft; it was opened, and some corruption ran out, together with a small piece of bone, and the sore soon got well, and the knot entirely diappeared. The sore on my leg also opened, and a piece of bone came out. I continued the use of the Sarsaparilla until I used twelve bottles, and am now entirely well, and able to do daily labor. It may seem strange to some, but I will here state that, during the summer of 1849, I coughed up three pieces of bone, which can now be seen at the residence of my uncle, Thos. Neal, where I now live, and if any persons doubt this statement, I will be happy ... they will call on me. Signed, THOMAS N. RINGO.

State of Kentucky, Graves Co., Sct.

This day personally came before me the undersigned, an acting justice of the peace in and for said county, and made oath in due form of law, that the above statement is true. Subscribed and sworn to, this 15th day of February, 1850.

S. P. MORSE, J. P. for G. C.

I, Irwin Anderson, Clerk of the County Court of Graves County, State of Kentucky, do certify that S. P. Morse, whose name is signed to the above certificate, is now, and was at the time of signing the same, a justice of the peace, in and for said Graves County, duly commissioned and qualified as such, and that faith and credit are due all his official acts, as such.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the County Court of said county to be hereunto affixed, this 18th day of February, 1850.

EDWIN ANDERSON.

Can the reader believe, after reading the description of the above numerous cures, that there is still a few human beings, suffering with disease, that refuse to give Bull's Sarsaparilla a trial. It is indeed hard to believe, but nevertheless, it is too true. What kind of testimony would it take to convince the few remaining disbelievers, that Bull's medicine will do more even than it promises? The doctor could produce another and another cure performed by his medicine; but if the cases published above will not convice the sceptical, it is useless to produce any more, and, indeed, it would cost a fortune to publish the many certificates that have been showered on Dr. Bull. The largest mammoth sheet in America would not contain even the names of those cured, let alone full statements of their cases.

This medicine, when used according to directions, will cure, without fail:—

The only Brace manufactured that does not bind or chafe under the arms, and can be worn with both ease and comfort.

Those who have worn other braces, are requested to give these a trial, to test their superiority over all others.

Clerks, Students, Tailors, Seamstresses, Children of both sexes, and all others, who, either from habit or occupation, or from a weakly or debilitated constitution have acquired the habit of bending forward, (round shouldered) and compressing the chest and lungs, will find the above Brace to remedy the above defect, and ensure an erect carriage, with improved symmetry and form of body to the wearer, and also allowing a full, free and healthy action and expansion of the lungs, by removing the compression, and preventing thereby the pulmonary organs from becoming weak and diseased.

C. W. VAN HORN'S IMPROVED ELASTIC UTERINE SUPPORTER, &c.

For Prolapsus Uteri, (Falling of the Womb,) &c.

Several Professors of Obstetrics, &c., and also a number of physicians in this city, and throughout the United States, have adopted them in their practice with the most decided beneficial results, and highly recommend and approve them. The following is from Prof. Woodward, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I have examined and used to a considerable extent, during a practice of nearly twenty-five years, a great variety of Spring and Laced Bandages, designed for the relief and cure of the several affections to which your instruments are applicable, but for mechanical execution, as well as the accurate adaptation of the instruments to their several designs, I have never seen any that has given me more satisfaction. CHARLES WOODWARD, M. D."
